

FREEDOM GROW

June, 2020

Dear Friends,

We would like to take this opportunity to send you a quick letter in lieu of the newsletter you might be expecting. We will be sending another newsletter in the future. However, as you know, Covid-19 and civil unrest is wreaking havoc and we thought it best to keep this correspondence short.

We are hopeful criminal justice reform is on the horizon. The conversations involving disproportionate justice could be the beginning of real change. We pray for your safety in this increasingly stressful environment. Freedom Grow and it's supporters are holding you all close to our heart and wish you the very best as you navigate your health and safety under these terrible circumstances.

We also want you to know we have been receiving quite a bit of mail. Unfortunately, we cannot respond to you each individually. We are sharing the photos and messages you have sent us with the public, as requested, as quickly as possible. In the future, if you have any information about yourself, your case or your experiences in prison you would like for the public to know, please feel free to send it to us and indicate your wishes. One positive outcome from this virus is that people now have extra time and are reaching out to us asking for pen pals. Please do not hesitate to keep us posted on your pen pal needs and experiences. In honor of Father's Day and Fourth of July, please check your commissary for a gift from us. As always let us know if you are experiencing difficulty accessing the funds.

We cannot express enough our respect and deep concern for you and your well-being, especially in these difficult times.

Best Wishes,

Freedom Grow Forever
